Back to school

Comment on the second document

This document is a cartoon where we can see two speech bubbles which means that there are two characters. On the right, there is a man who is opening the door in order to / to wake up the second character.

He is holding a newspaper under his left arm and a mug in his left hand, he has a small head and he is bald. He is wearing a dressing gown and pyjamas trousers with red and yellow stripes.

After reading the first bubble we first imagine that's a student speaking because it's written "I don't wanna go back to school, nobody likes me! They tease me and pull my hair and beat me up! I hate it."

So it could be a bullied teenager everybody mocks or laugh at .

However when we read the second speech bubble , we realize that it's a teacher "No one said teaching would be easy , dear".

It must be a father and child relationship.
