

ENTRAÎNEMENT

Réponses courtes

1 Donnez des réponses courtes aux questions suivantes, comme dans l'exemple ci-dessous.

Exemple : Has Richard finished his work? No, ... → No, he hasn't.

1. Can you read these small letters? Of course,
2. Will they be there at ten o'clock? No,
3. Do you think they'll understand? Yes, I
4. Have you ever been to the USA? No, we
5. Did you see that film on TV? Yes, we

2 Donnez des réponses courtes aux questions suivantes (avec reprise d'un auxiliaire ou d'un modal).

Exemple : Who will go shopping? Peter. → Peter will.

1. Who can read German? Patricia
2. Who knocked at the door? Mrs Smith
3. Who had sent that letter? Jennifer
4. Who came here by bus? John
5. Who would accept to go? Robert

Question tags

3 Complétez les phrases suivantes avec des question tags.

Exemple : You'd been there before, ... → hadn't you?

1. They weren't waiting for us,
2. John can speak Italian,
3. The Lawsons arrived yesterday,
4. Richard likes playing the piano,
5. Let's have a cup of tea,

6. She can swim,
7. Peter was very pleased,
8. You didn't call me,
9. I am too early,
10. It's very difficult,
11. She came three days ago,
12. You've already been to the USA,
13. They wouldn't like me to go away,
14. We needn't give you more details,
15. You shouldn't drive so fast,
16. He can't do it now,

Moi aussi/Moi non plus

4 Exprimez la conformité positive grâce à so + auxiliaire (ou modal) + sujet après chacune des phrases.

Exemple : They went to London yesterday. (we) → So did we.

1. Peter's very good at History. (his brother)
2. He's understood everything. (I)
3. The Richardsons will be there by 10. (you)
4. I'd be very pleased to meet them. (they)
5. Your brother can run very fast. (I)

5 Exprimez la conformité négative en utilisant either, puis neither.

Exemple : They haven't heard of him. (we)
→ We haven't either/Neither have we.

1. Your friends shouldn't stay here. (you)
2. I couldn't see anything! (we)
3. He won't go to work tomorrow. (she)
4. Bill isn't very good at maths. (I)
5. I wouldn't like to work with them. (we)